United States Fencing Coaches Association

- Member National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA)
- Member Academie d'Armes Internationale (AAI)

The United States Fencing Coaches Association is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1941 as the "National College Fencing Coaches Association of America." The USFCA is a member of the Académie d'Armes Internationale (AAI), the world organization of national academies of arms. Professional certifications awarded by the USFCA are recognized by the AAI and its member national bodies throughout the world.

The only national association in the United States dedicated solely to the service of fencing coaches, the USFCA supports fencing coaches through education, certification, marketing and member benefits to benefit the art and sport of fencing.

Membership year runs from September 1 to August 31 the following year.
